Keynote Speaker
Dr. Carlos Cortes

Dr. Carlos Cortes, Professor Emeritus of History at UC Riverside, has lectured widely throughout the United States, Latin America, Europe, Asia, and Australia on such topics as race and ethnicity, multiculturalism, diversity in the media, multicultural, global, bilingual, and social studies education; media literacy; Hispanic culture; film-and-history; Latin American and Chicano history, and the implications of diversity for education, government, and private business. Since 1990, he has served on the summer faculty of the Harvard Institutes for Higher Education and since 1995 on the faculty of the Summer Institute for Intercultural Communication.

A consultant to many government agencies, school systems, universities, mass media, private businesses and other organizations, Dr. Cortes has written film and television documentaries, has appeared as guest host on the PBS national television series, "Why in the World?", is the featured presenter on the Video Journal of Education's 1994 training video "Diversity in the Classroom," and currently serves as Cultural Consultant for Nickelodeon's preschool series, "Dora the Explorer."

His two most recent books are The Children are Watching: How the Media Teach about Diversity, and The Making — and Remaking—of a Multiculturalist. He is the editor of three book series and author of numerous professional books and articles, among which is "Beyond Language: Social and Cultural Factors in Schooling Language Minority Students."

ESL Best Practices Colloquium

The San Bernardino Valley College English Department invites you to join community college and adult education colleagues for a day devoted to the advancement of effective teaching of English to non-native speakers.

We will begin our day with check-in and a continental breakfast. Our keynote speaker, Dr. Carlos Cortes, is a highly sought after speaker, consultant, and award-winning Professor Emeritus of History from the University of California, Riverside. His address will be followed by concurrent sessions on typical language issues encountered by ESL students. After our buffet lunch, we will conclude with a GIFT session (Great Ideas For Teaching), a time when successful educators, in small group settings, present informal, brief, clear descriptions of ideas and resources proven to help adult ESL students learn English. Join us!
