Purpose: My participation in this conference benefits the district as well as SBVC students and faculty in that I am improving my own academic research and field knowledge, which I bring with me into the classroom and share with my colleague; my work could lead to a publication, as well. The value of the activity is not financial, but educational for me and for those with whom I professionally engage.

Location: Honolulu, HI

Dates: 11/10/17 to 11/12/17

Purpose: The district will benefit by having a teacher who is better connected to and informed by a network of academics who grapple with both the practicalities of the classroom experience as well as the abstract ideas meditated upon by literature scholars. The value of the conference lies in its ability to foster an appreciation for the life of the mind and to advance literary studies, and my attendance strengthens me as a scholar, as a writer, and as a teacher.
